"We invited Kevin to help prepare our staff for increased workloads, greater customer expectations, home stressors and ensuring they are best positioned for success in their personal and professional lives."

"Kevin had the entire audience on the edge of their seats. To a person, everyone took something away they can do to benefit themselves and their families. Kevin struck a chord on so many levels, regardless of each person's demographic or social standing. His engagement and delivery was perfect."

KEVIN HUMPHREYS DSC

INTERNATIONAL KEYNOTE SPEAKER
 CIVILIAN SEARCH & RESCUE PILOT
 DECORATED MILITARY PILOT
 CITIZEN OF THE YEAR
 AMBASSADOR
 LEADER

Kevin partners with safety managers and executives juggling compliance, culture, and people who are looking for practical tools grounded in operational experience. He knows they want to show up with intention, lead with impact, and deliver excellence.

Kevin lives and breathes high stakes performance. Piloting helicopters in the Australian Army for two decades whilst leading small and large teams; earning him the Distinguished Service Cross for his command and leadership under fire in Afghanistan.

He's also experienced the opposite of excellence; a toxic work environment mixed with mental illness that led to suicidal ideation and a breakdown. However, Kevin returned to flying civilian Search and Rescue, serving for another decade. His experiences and insights are powerfully shared in his keynote and book, Shrapnel in the Soul.

As an internationally recognised keynote speaker, Certified Speaking Professional, Local Community Citizen of the Year and Next Level Speaking Award recipient, his messages are equal parts inspiration and action plan. Kevin resonates at all levels, helping individuals and teams fly for excellence.
